Cremation & Immediate Burial Identification (time of reflection)

It is the policy of the funeral home that identification of the deceased must take place before cremation or immediate burial. The identification must be completed by one of the following; executor, spouse, children or a person appointed by the family. If none of the above identifies the deceased the cremation or immediate burial may not take place depending on the situation. This service is free of charge for the purpose of identification only; it is not a visitation period. A time of 20 minutes is permitted by 1-4 people (maximum). Should more than 4 people wish to view the deceased; a charge for the use of the visitation room of $175.00 will be applied to the account. The identification must take place within 24 hours of the death, if practical.

HISTORY

In 1935, Mr. Alfred Millard George opened London Funeral Service at 104 Dundas Street. The business later moved to 339 King Street, where the firm operated as Irving and George Funeral Home. After purchasing the property at 190 Wortley Road, Mr. George established the A. Millard George Funeral Home, which operated from 1940 - 1968 in this location. In 1957, Mr. George purchased the Ardaven Funeral Chapel at 60 Ridout Street South, and in 1965, built a new funeral home on this site. The A. Millard George Funeral Home Limited was dedicated on February 11, 1965. Paul J. Mullen began his apprenticeship under Mr. George in 1965 and the two become partners in 1971. Paul J. Mullen became the sole owner upon Mr. George's death in 1993. Paul's son, David Mullen, became a Licensed Funeral Director in 1998. In 2006, David became partners with his father, ensuring that the A. Millard George Funeral Home (AMG) would remain family owned and operated. In June 2015, Paul retired after 48 years in the business and passed ownership to David. Paul J. Mullen died on Saturday, December 12, 2020 in his 77th year, after struggling with dementia for many years.
